Students generally receive their federal student funds in two disbursements for the Academic Year. First-time, first-year borrowers at the Columbia College cannot have loan funds disbursed until 30 days before the borrower enrolls. First-time borrowers will no longer be eligible for a Direct Subsidized Loan once the student has received the Subsidized Loan for a period that is 150% of the published length of the student's current educational program. The approved loan amount(s) will be determined by the CC Cost of Attendance, minus the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) as determined by your 2021-2022 FAFSA. Any financial aid you are awarded will be deducted from your COA. Students cannot exceed their COA and/or annual loan limit for the academic year. If you received loans from another institution within the 2021-2022 academic year your annual loan limit will be reduced accordingly. PART 3: Please read and INITIAL each item:
